Brandhof

Dear guests,

in our carefully selected menu, you just find,
what we identify ourselves with.

We work with fresh products and hand in hand with poartners from the region.

Of course, we try to keep our quality and improve it constantly. If you still have a complaint or an improvement suggestion,
we would be very glad if you inform us.
This is the only way to improve.

By the way, you can order almost all main courses as a small portion.

We wish you a pleasent stay in the Brandhof and are happy about, you being our guests.

Family Althaus and the team of the Brandhof

Brandhof

History

Already around 1400 the property was mentioned as a mill in the "Gültbuch Tannenberg" and then was destroyed by the turmoil of the 30-year-old war in 1634 to its foundations.

For 153 years, the mill remained ruinous until 1787, on the initiative of Prince George von Hessen, a new mill was built on the old foundation walls.

1872 this mill experienced the same fate as its predecessor and was destroyed for the second time by a fire. Prince Alexander von Hessen set the course for a gastronomic use of the estate in the same year.

The house was rebuilt and turned into a guest house. From then on the name Brandhof was a term in the region.

Until the year 1910, counties and princes visited the Stettbachertal, before Prince Ludwig von Battenberg finally sold the Brandhof into civil hands.

Furthermore Brandhof remained a hospitable place and in 1964 was sold to Mr and Mrs Elise and Oswald Althaus.

They developed the restaurant to a hotel from time to time and her son Jörg Althaus leads the 3 stars hotel with a lot of engagement.

The philosophy "natural gastronomy and wellness in harmony" is tangible to the hotel business and reflected in many details.
